The Money or the Nun!

Australian Premiere of Nonsense A-Men! in June @ Earl Arts

It seems the cast of Nonsense A-Men needed no divine intervention as they took over Launceston Worker's Club the other weekend. The all-singing, all-dancing, all-sports loving "Sisters" from Hoboken seemed right at home as they took time out from rehearsals for a refreshing beverage and to learn the finer points of pool-sharking and racking one's balls.

Fortunately, Sarah Haberle (About You Photography) was there to record the happy moment, which is now destined to be immortalised on the show poster.

By the way, early box office interest has prompted Encore to add a 6th and final performance. Grab your tickets now – there are 3 easy ways to book:

Introducing Patrick O'Halloran... Our Boy from Oz!

Tasmanian Premiere of The Boy from Oz in October @ Princess Theatre

"But no matter how far, or how wide I roam, I still call Australia home..." are words that resonate with Tasmania's Boy from Oz, having only recently returned home from an 18 month stint in London. Encore Theatre Company are pleased to introduce "our Peter Allen", Patrick O'Halloran.

Patrick has been performing throughout Tasmania for over 10 years and has been involved in many productions with every major performing group in Hobart and Launceston.

He has enjoyed playing lead roles in Assassins for the Launceston Players, Into the Woods and Les Miserables for ExitLeft Productions and West Side Story for XWellington WellingtonX Productions. He has also been successful in numerous eisteddfods and recitals under the tutelage of Helen Todd and received dance training with Michelle Howell and Mandy Cashion in Hobart.

Off stage Patrick has maintained contact with the performing arts through his role as Chair of the Friends of Tasdance Committee.

Having been based in the UK for the last 18 months, Patrick is pleased to return to Launceston (and still call Australia home) and be a part of the excitement and musical greatness of Peter Allen and The Boy From Oz.

And if you'd like to join Patrick onstage, then book an audition for May 9-10 NOW! Call Jamie on 0433 999 248 or email encoretheatre@hotmail.com for an audition kit and music selections.

Encore Superstars

Each month Encore highlights the efforts of a member of their dedicated team of volunteers, and this month we would like you to meet Mary Cassidy.

Mary made her return to musical theatre in Encore's The Sound of Music after an absence of 20 years; last performing in Cabaret, Evita, Annie and The King & I with the Launceston Players and TSIT under the direction of Peter Hammond.

In her time away from musicals she has been a member of many choirs and singing groups, and in New Zealand she joined Sweet Adeline's, barbershop for women.

Originally with Faultline Chorus, Wellington and then with the Greater Auckland Chorus, she travelled to Orlando in 2000 for internationals, among 10,000 women from all over the world, and finished 23rd in international competition.

Mary has constantly pitched in with Encore, from hitting the streets of Launceston to put up show posters, and more recently helping out as a dresser for Hair.

Congratulations & thank you to our latest Encore Superstar...

Mary Cassidy!
