WHERE ARE JUDY & LIZA?

DOES LAUNCESTON HAVE ITS OWN SUSAN BOYLE?

This week the call is going out to see if the next great talent can be unearthed right here in Launceston, when Encore Theatre Company holds auditions to find the cast for the Tasmanian Premiere Season of The Boy from Oz.

According to director, BJ King, "This show includes three of the most demanding roles for women in contemporary musical theatre. Peter Allen surrounded himself with strong ladies, and we want to find three Launceston performers to show us that they can capture the essence of Judy Garland (aged around 40), Liza Minelli (a 20-something spunk) and Peter's mother, Marion Woolough (approx 50)."

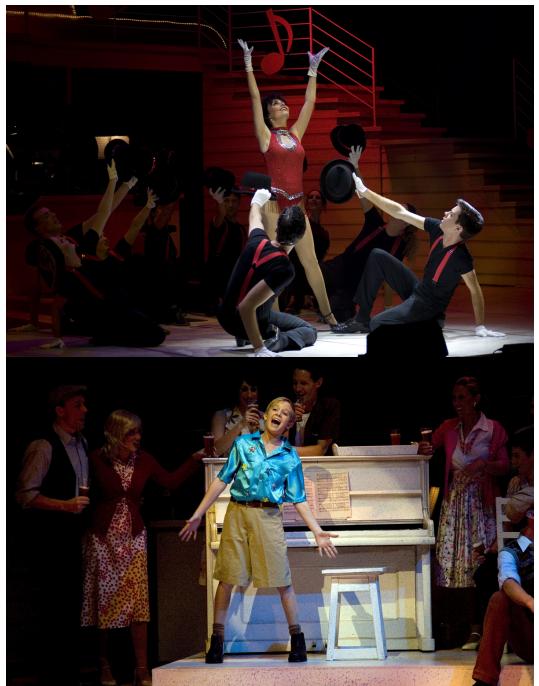

"I know that auditions can be an incredibly daunting experience for performers, but the Encore team is really looking forward to creating an environment this weekend where we can work collaboratively with auditionees to help them present their best, which in turn helps us to select the right people for each and every role."

Focussing on the extraordinary life of Peter Allen, have you got what it takes to be a part of the Musical of a Lifetime? A wide variety of roles for singers, actors and dancers are available. Call Jamie for an Audition Kit, bookings and music selections on 0433 999 248.

There will only ever be one Tasmanian Premiere, and it's going to be right here in Launceston. For your chance to be a part of Tasmanian theatre history, pick up the phone and make that call!

Besides 15 minutes this weekend, what have you got to lose?

Meet Les Ms. Bennett

Les Misérables... it's bigger, it's better & it's back! The world's most-popular musical finally returns to the Princess Theatre in March 2010.

But who can Encore find to tackle the enormous logistics of creating this epic show? That daunting task is now officially in the hands of Encore's newest Director... Liz Bennett.

Liz has been at the helm of many highly successful Launceston College productions, and has vast experience in dealing with casts & crew often numbering 200+. This year she has already directed Macbeth for LC, and is currently spinning the glitter balls for Disco Inferno, which will hit the stage of the Princess Theatre in late June.

And taking on the task of Musical Direction of the magnificent Les Mis score is Matt Dudfield.

As you can see from Showbuzz's picture of Liz, she is already getting into 'Prisoner 24601' mode, and looks forward to gearing up with the Encore team for auditions in August with rehearsals commencing in October, immediately following The Boy from Oz season.

Mother's Day @ The Metz

One of the biggest compliments that has been paid to Encore in their brief history relates to the feeling of 'family' when working with the team. And this weekend the attention will focus on those at the heart of many family teams; our Mums!

If you are looking to spoil you Mum this Mother's Day, Encore would like to suggest that you consider choosing to dine with the Metz Café Bar – another team who are very much a part of the Encore family.

Olivia, Ang and the crew will be opening their doors for breakfast, lunch and dinner (& an all-day snack menu for those 'in-between' times) and as always there is a fabulous selection of wines on the list. See you @ The Metz!

Encore Superstars

Each month Encore highlights the valuable efforts of a member of their dedicated team of volunteers. And let's face it, without volunteers Encore simply would not exist!

So, is there someone on the Encore team that you think should be named as an Encore Superstar? The Committee welcomes your suggestions, and asks you email them to encoretheatre@hotmail.com
