SHOWBUZZ

NOVEMBER 2011
Extra Edition

Life really is a... CABARET!

And Madame Edith finds her true calling!

Audiences succumbed to the delight of Madame Edith's cabaret as they swarmed to the Earl Arts Centre during November. Over 2,000 patrons laughed, cried and called for "more" from the cast of Encore Theatre Company's production of 'Allo 'Allo with the HOUSE FULL sign going up no less than seven times! Congrats to all involved on a mammoth 3-week season.

RISING STARS!

Isabelle's performance a real Beauty

In early 2011 Isabelle Grossmith went totally wild along with the rest of the cast of Encore's High School Musical, and since then has filled her time with lots of study at St Patrick's College and more shows, recently winning the title role in PCYC's Beauty and the Beast Jnr.

And the moment the show's over? She's straight into rehearsals for Encore's Jesus Christ Superstar. Have you got your tickets yet? Close to 1,000 seats have already been snapped up already!

Broadway Bound!

Matthew Garwood has just played his last Encore show ('Allo 'Allo) for the time being at least, following his acceptance into Patrick Studios Australia in Melbourne to study musical theatre and the performing arts. But ahead of his departure he couldn't resist a final curtain call of organising his own musical farewell and inviting a few friends along for the ride.

Featured singers include Samantha Hammersley, Ross Marsden, John de Jong and Shelley Spencer, with music from shows including Wicked, Cabaret and The Rocky Horror Picture Show.

Chookas for your study in Melbourne, Matt!
