JUDGING JUDAS

No pressure, but... for Nathan Wheldon there's obviously lots to think about as he contemplates performing the role of Judas in front of Australia's original creator of the role.

And then there's the added pressure of rumours that he and his band have just made their way through to the next round of a well-known national TV talent quest... It looks a lot like someone's going to be awfully busy come March & April...

Theatrefest 2012

If you've always wondered about throwing on a pair of tap shoes or putting a lifetime of carpentry skills to use creating something other than a coffee table, then there's more than 20 arts organisations who would be very pleased to meet you.

On Sunday 26 February more than 20 local theatre and performing arts groups and organisations come together under one roof to showcase what they do, their 2012 productions and how more people can become involved both on and off the stage with the creation of a piece of live theatre.

The list of organisations represented this year includes Dance Pointe, CentrStage and SVPA, Launceston Players, TasDance, Mudlark, Launceston Musical Society, Junction Arts Festival, Launceston Youth Theatre Ensemble, Stompin', Encore Theatre Company... even Theatre North and Breath of Fresh Air Film Festival will be there... just to name a few!

The day will be filled with live performances, displays, demonstrations and informative talks along with plenty of prize draws to win complimentary tickets to many 2012 shows. As you may have already guessed, Launceston's local arts community looks forward to seeing you there.

PS And if you're there around 12.30pm the word is you'll also get a sneak peek at the cast of Jesus Christ Superstar in action...

The Producers

Hobart Summer School is on again, and ready to present The Producers!

After putting together another Broadway flop, down-on-his-luck producer Max Bialystock teams up with timid accountant Leo Bloom in a get-rich-quick scheme to put on the world's worst show. And it's a musical called Springtime for Hitler written by and escaped Nazi. They get the insanely flamboyant Roger De Bris to direct, hire a loopy Swedish bombshell as their leading lady, and with opening night drawing near, what can possibly go wrong?
