AWESOME FOURSOME

It's high energy in the rehearsal room with the talented cast of We Will Rock You as they prepare to rock the stage of Launceston's Princess Theatre this August.

Based on the timeless music of Queen, Director Belinda J King is passionate about the show delivering a live music experience. "It's better to experience live rock 'n' roll how it was always supposed to be, with everybody else enjoying the show, too," she says.

Encore have assembled an incredible line-up of talented Tasmanians, including: L to R: Nikia Breen (Oz), Zander Wells (Brit), Nathan Wheldon (Galileo) and Natalie Reid (Scaramouche).

2019 PETER HARVEY AWARD

Peter Harvey was one of the 5 founding members of Encore Theatre Company, with a lifelong passion for the theatre. When we lost him in 2012 the company established an Award and scholarship in his name.

Encore is pleased to announce that this year we have two recipients of the Peter Harvey Emerging Artist Award in 2019, and they are Georgia O'Brien (left) and Bree Stuart (right).

Georgia has played a number of roles with Encore in the last decade, and in 2018 starred in Launceston College's Jesus Christ Superstar. Bree is a more recent arrival to the Encore ranks, making a huge impression as Eponine in Les Misérables and more recently as Maria in The Sound of Music. Both are now studying in Melbourne and eyeing off a future in the field of performing arts. Chookas, ladies!

GREASE IS THE WORD

A dazzling night of electrifyin' 50's GREASE-themed fun was had last month at the Hotel Grand Chancellor when the Clifford Craig Foundation presented the Grease Charity Ball on Friday 10 May. Encore contributed a selection of songs from the film and stage show, led by Tarrant Edwards (as Danny) and Chelsea Dean (as Sandy), with choreography by Lisa Trinnick.

All funds raised from the night stays right here in Northern Tasmania supporting medical research projects through the Launceston General Hospital and the University of Tasmania.
