It was during Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat that Encore welcomed aboard a new major partner to assist them in presenting high quality community theatre productions. And it's time that they were officially introduced to you!

Aurora Energy has joined Team Encore, building their partnership upon the foundations of their mutual commitment to community involvement and engagement. Aurora's Nick Roney and family thoroughly enjoyed their night at the theatre, while also realising what their neighbours, the Garwood family, actually get up to in their spare time! Meet Rene, the most wanted man in occupied France: women want his body, the Resistance want his brain and the Nazis want his sausage!

One of the greatest British TV comedies ever written comes to the Earl Arts Centre this November. This stunning new stage production follows the hilarious adventures of Rene, a hapless café owner in war-torn occupied France, as he and his wife Edith struggle to keep for themselves a priceless portrait stolen by the Nazis and hidden in a sausage in their cellar. Rene must also keep secret from his wife his long-running affairs with two waitresses or losing his cherished café may be the least of his problems!

Seussical Jr. The Musical

Seeing is Believing in 2011
& 2012

Susie Heggie is clearly one of the busiest women around. Not only has she worked tirelessly on Joseph, she has been hard at work on Grammar's production of Seussical The Musical. A delight for children to perform, Seussical is a fantastical, magical, musical extravaganza that has lovingly brought to life all of your favorite Dr. Seuss characters, including Horton the Elephant, The Cat in the Hat, Gertrude McFuzz, lazy Mayzie and a little boy with a big imagination! The colorful characters transport us from the Jungle of Nool to the Circus McGurkus to the invisible world of the Whos.
