EVERYTHING'S ALRIGHT!

With so many concerned friends on hand, even Brett Budgeon would have to agree that 'Everything's Alright' and on track for a huge season of Jesus Christ Superstar in March 2012 at the Princess Theatre.

With the Company about to take a break for Christmas, Act 1 is looking very secure and work is well underway on Act II.

BAD BOYS RULE!

"Not again! I'm cast as the baddie, again?"

Although he's not really complaining, Paul Mannion has had a history of being cast as the baddie, having previously played Judas in LMS' Godspell in 2002. And looking at the photo of him with Jolan Walker (Annas) and Mark Denny (Priest #1) it's obvious that it's going to be a real stretch for him to play high Priest Caiaphas... NOT!

Encore's Jesus Christ Superstar is receiving bookings from right around the country as fans clamour to see Jon English back in the show that made him a Superstar. Have you got your tickets yet? Close to 1,500 seats have been snapped up already!

Meet Travis Hennessy

Since graduating from the School of Visual and Performing Arts (UTAS) in 2004, Travis has been heavily involved in professional Theatre and Music, most notably with CentrStage Theatre Company and Mudlark Theatre Company Inc. Travis is currently the voice tutor at Launceston College in addition to teaching privately and at other Launceston Schools.

In 2005 Travis was awarded the prestigious Country Club Tasmania Theatrical Development Award, and in 2008 Travis professionally toured a musical he co-wrote, Happy Me (formerly Left of Centr), which drew high praise from audiences and critics alike.

In 2010, Travis appeared in Boy's Own McBeth, Les Misérables, The Pillowman and the original musical Dentures in Db and Cymbeline, which he also co-directed with CentrStage, One Day #7 with Mudlark Theatre Co. Inc., as well as assisting on Launceston College's Back to the Eighties. Travis has recently been nominated for the Southern Cross Young Achiever of the Year Awards in the Arts Category and is currently Co-Vocal Director for Encore's Jesus Christ Superstar.
