WHO'S YA DADDY?

Introducing Annie & Daddy Warbucks!

Rhiannon Bone and Ross Marsden got a head start on winning audiences with their recent appearance for The Sunday Examiner at Launceston's Country Club. And we think they looked fantastic!

And while Rhiannon is delighted to be sporting red curls for the show, Ross is not quite as thrilled with his hairstyle and can currently be seen buying up a wardrobe of colourful beanies. "Them's the breaks, Rossy!"

MY SON PINOCCHIO

Fifty-four excited Grade 6 students have been busily preparing for their annual musical Production – this year, the Tasmanian premiere of the Disney's My Son Pinocchio Jr. The compulsory musical theatre program is a much-loved feature of the Junior School program at Grammar and as usual the students have been enthusiastic about learning many facets of theatre, including acting, singing, dancing, using sets, costumes and make-up. The music in this particular production is outstanding – featuring well-known “oldies” such as When You Wish Upon a Star and I've Got No Strings; it also has the upbeat Pleasure Island and poignant Empty Heart. Funny and colourful, get along to see this new work if you can from Launceston's next generation of musical stars.
